

(Y2U3) Our local heroes: Who are our local heroes and why should we remember them?

Moss Park Key Knowledge

- People can be considered heroes for many different reasons.
- Our local heroes may or may not be known by people in other parts of the country.
- We can research our local heroes by looking at images like photographs or paintings like portraits.
- We can find out about local heroes by looking at objects like medals, toys or clothes.
- We can find out about local heroes by reading documents like newspapers, diaries or letters.
- We can find out about local heroes by visiting places like houses, churchyards, or museums.

Emmeline Pankhurst
15.05.1858 - 14.06.1928

Laurence Stephen Lowry
01.11. 1887 - 23.02.1976

Marcus Rashford
31.10.1997 to present

Words to remember significant museum portrait research source hero local

Our greatest local hero is...

because...